

Fire Awareness

Fire Awareness

Overview

This is an essential course for all staff working within health and social care, regardless of working within accommodation based services as part of a larger team or working independently within the individuals own home lone working. The course introduces participants to the essential information that can help prevent fires in the first place as well as actions to take on discovering a fire.

Course content:

The following topics are covered in this course.

- Provides an overview of current fire safety legislation
- Recognise safety signage
- Evacuation procedures and what to do when a fire is discovered
- Classifications of fire and fire extinguishers
- Participate in the risk assessment process including Hazard spotting and safety checks
- Common causes of Fire
- Chemistry of Fire and How Fire Spreads

Entry Requirements:

This fire awareness training course is designed for all levels of staff that have a fire safety responsibility that may need to operate fire extinguishers.

Assessment:

We can deliver this course on your premises, reducing costs in respect of additional time out and travelling. Our trainer will carry out on going assessments.

Qualification

On completion of the course. All delegates will receive Certificate of Attendance

Duration of course

Depending on module

Attendance Options

Days/Evenings/Weekends